THE CURRICULUM  A degree in the arts allows students to develop strong communication skills—written, spoken, and visual—and gives them experience in problem solving and analysis. Art students develop the ability to manage multiple projects and work successfully in groups.

THE INFLUENCE OF FINE AND APPLIED ARTS HAS NEVER BEEN GREATER THAN IT IS TODAY, and the Department of Art, Graphic Design and Art History at Oklahoma State University is dedicated to excellence in all forms of art creation, research, and education. The Department enjoys a highly active faculty, who exhibit nationally and internationally and whose scholarly work is consistently cited for its excellence. They are also dedicated teachers, always seeking to improve educational and professional opportunities for the students at OSU. The Department furthermore provides unique opportunities for students to experience art through exhibits, travel, internships and research.
