FACULTY RESEARCH
Liberal Studies faculty are spread across 13 departments with research ranging from American Politics to Unmanned Aerial Systems and Acting to Medieval Literature. For more information visit the departmental websites.

SKILLS DEVELOPED
- Expanded perceptions of yourself and the world
- Critical thinking
- Writing clearly about complex topics
- Research and analysis

THE CURRICULUM
The liberal studies degree builds on the liberal arts and is designed to meet the needs of students who desire greater breath in their curriculum than the typical degree allows. By combining coursework from over a dozen Arts and Sciences humanities and social sciences disciplines, students who pursue this degree may achieve unique academic and career goals.

After selecting the BA or BS option, liberal studies students select two areas of concentration of 15 hours each of upper-division coursework from the following list of disciplines. Twelve additional upper-division hours are taken in any combination of A&S subjects.

- American Studies
- Anthropology
- Art History
- Economics
- English
- Foreign Languages
- History
- Gender & Women Studies
- Geography
- Mathematics
- Music
- Philosophy
- Political Science
- Psychology
- Religious Studies
- Sociology
- Speech
- Theatre
OPPORTUNITIES FOR LIBERAL STUDIES STUDENTS
• Professional development
  - Support for internships
  - Career advising
• Study abroad opportunities
• A&S student clubs and organizations

CAREERS
By combining coursework from over a dozen Arts and Sciences humanities and social sciences disciplines, students who pursue this degree may achieve unique academic and career goals.

OUR GRADUATES’ CAREERS
• Business Manager
• Park Ranger
• Insurance Agent
• Foreign Service Officer
• Librarian
• Law Enforcement Officer
• Editorial Assistant
• College Professor
• Sales Representative
• Writer
• Human Resource Specialist
• Religious Minister
• Consultant
• Museum Curator / Educator

COURSES
A liberal education cultivates key skills that are valuable for individual development and good citizenship, and they are useful in virtually any profession.

Visit our Finish-in-Four Plans at http://casstudents.okstate.edu/finish-in-four-plans